

This is absolutely insane that Sinclair will show what they want rather than showing both sides. If they want to show this video, they have to let Going Upriver be shown to the public at the same time slot on a similar day. This is America at its worst.